ABOUT US

INDIRA GANDHI DELHI TECHNICAL UNIVERSITY FOR WOMEN

(formerly known as IGIT) emerged as an independent University in May 2013, with an aim to bring forth passionate women engineers – with wit, vigour and intelligence. IGDTUW is South Asia's first women's technical university, ranked 2nd among the top 10 emerging engineering institutes of India. At IGDTUW, we believe in the growth of our students into responsible and accomplished women, through education in all aspects.

THE JOURNEY TO TAARANGANA 2018

All the strings have been pulled right, and the engine has been set into motion. Taarangana will be back with its fifth edition in February 2018.

Taarangana is the annual cultural festival of IGDTUW. Spread over a span of two days, it aims at becoming a seamless medium of cultural learning for students from all over the country. The sole vision behind the hosting of Taarangana is to promote interaction between students hailing from different backgrounds and give them a taste of dance, music, theatre, literature and art.
